KRONIKO FAKA.

Commerce. Grateful thanks are due to Esperantist 16,506, who generously gave £20 to finance the International Commercial Experiment. In London eleven business men and women have completed a twelve-lesson course in the B.E.A. Offices, and sat for the Elementary Examination, nine being successful.

Internacia Ekonomia Unuiĝo de Katolikaj Komer-cistoj (Postfach 224, Fulda, Germany) prints its title in Esperanto on its letter-heading, and its Organ Internationaler Courier contains advertisements in Esperanto.

Fairs. Several Esperanto prospectuses and advertising bills reach us from other lands. When will British merchants also realise the advertising value of Esperanto?

Frankfurt a. M. 17-22 April, 1925. Full information as to the 30 branches of industry represented at the Fair.

Leipzig. 30 Aug.—9 Sept. Well illustrated booklet.

Lyon. 2—15 March. Two illustrated leaflets with map.

Praha. 22—29 March, 6—13 Sept. Esperanto used for correspondence.

Swiss Fair, 18—28 April, Basel. Illustrated leaflet with details.

Labour. The International Transport Federation has given a lead to the other twenty-seven Trade Union Internationals by printing a half-page of Esperanto news in its official journal. The Post, The Assurance Agents' Chronicle, and The Railway Review have begun weekly courses of lessons. Monthly Report (National Amalgamated Furnishing Trade's Association), March, contains an excellent article by Mark Starr.

League of Nations' Union. La tagordo de la venonta Konferenco en Liverpool, en Junio, kredeble enhavos demandon pri la utiligo de Esperanto. Ni petas, ke niaj Membroj propagandu la lokan filion de la Unio, por instigi, ke ĝi faru rezolucion favore por nia lingvo.

Medicine. We have received a new edition of Preparaĵoj de Tutmonda Intereso from Messrs. Burroughs, Wellcome & Co., Snow Hill Buildings, London, E.C., who will send a free copy on application.

Music. Do readers know that Messrs. Phillips and Page, 5 Market Place, London, W.1., publish an edition of their celebrated song "Sing me to Sleep," with Esperanto text, at the usual price (2/- net)? This may be obtained from the B.E.A., or from any dealer. We hope readers will support this enterprise.

Post. La Interligilo de l' P.T.T., a monthly postal magazine published at 54 Rue Custine, Paris, XVIII, 10 fr. francs yearly, contains much news of progress in postal circles; and should be supported by all postal Esperantists. We are glad to note that this magazine, with others, is now returning to the Zamenhofan usage as regards land-names.

Radio. The great event of the moment is the appearance of International Radio Manual (B.E.A., 6 pence). See advert on last page. Every member should make it a point of honour to purchase a dozen copies for Radio friends. There is no better propagandilo. It is to your support that we look to justify the great cost of publication.

The Manual gives details of 20 European stations now transmitting regularly in Esperanto. If members who hear these transmissions, instead of writing to the B.E.A., would write congratulations to the Stations concerned, they would do an immense service to Esperanto. A letter from abroad is worth many from the country of transmission.

Religion. It does not seem to be generally known that the monthly services in London continue to be held on the second Sunday in the month (see Diary of Coming Events). Verb. sat., or should be.

In Glasgow the Church Lecture Society holds fortnightly Esperanto services and lectures, 8.15 p.m., at 702 Alexandra Parade. Next dates: May 17, May 31.

Shorthand. Flugila Skribilo, a magazine appearing in French and Esperanto shorthand (system Duploye) announces six shorthand competitions of an international character. Write for details to the editor, Mr. Flaguel, 9 Bd Voltaire, Issy, Seine, France. He also edits an interesting Esperanto Shorthand magazine: La Internacia Stenografisto.

Sport. La unua laborista olimpiado, Frankfurt am Main (24-28 Julio), respondos demandojn pri la olimpiado Esperante skribitajn. Adresu: Geschäftsstelle der Olympia in Frankfurt a.M., Allerheiligenstr. 51. Oni atendas 250,000 partoprenontojn.

Coles, W. R. E., 7 Marto, 84-jara. S-ro Coles senbrue faris multajn servojn al nia afero. Modesta, idealista homo li estis, kiu evitis publikajn honorojn, sed kaŝite laboris por la progresigo de la homaro en la vojoj de paco, amikeco, kaj bonvolo.

Dawtre, Marian Bredall, 28 Marto, unujara; filino de Pastro H. Dawtre, kaj nepino de John Bredall.

Rollason, A. P. H., 15 Februaro, en Toronto. Li estis membro de la Societo de Amikoj, antaŭe Baptista pastro en Montgomery, sekretario de Toronto Esperantista Societo, fervora kaj praktika idealisto.

Stevens, Florence E., 3 Aprilo, 68-jara, el Welwyn Garden City. Ŝi estis varma subtenanto de nia movado, kaj patrino de du el niaj aktivaj Membroj: S-ino E. R. Edmonds kaj F-ino K. M. Stevens.

Sturge, D-rino Mary, 14 Marto. Eminent kuracistino, kunaŭtoro de la fama kontraŭalkohola verko "Alkoholo kaj la Homa Korpo," kiun ŝi pripensis tradukigi Esperanten. Ŝi estis varma amiko al Esperanto.

VARIOUS.

Fourteen members have replied nobly to our appeal for gifts of postcard portraits or pictures of Esperanto interest for the Library. The others are, we hope, arranging to visit the photographer shortly.

Illustrated postcards of the Antwerp Congress may be obtained from E. Bastyns, 29 rue des Tanneurs, Antwerp, (2 francs for the set of 26 cards).

La Mahaprakaso (La Torĉlumo de Esperanto) is the name of a little Esperanto magazine for India, published by G. Subrahmanya Sarma Eliyurkar, P.O. Box 603, Mylapore; subscription 4/- per annum.

Nature, 14 March, prints a letter by Dr. Norman Campbell in support of Esperanto.

The Bermondsey Book for March (2/-, from Bermondsey Bookshop, 89 Bermondsey St., S.E. 4), contains a discussion on a "A World Language," with articles by Bernard Shaw, (Simplified English), Stacy Aumonier (English), Dr. J. McFadyen (Esperanto), Frederick Whyte (French?), William Archer (Esperanto or Ido). It is interesting to note that just before his death Mr. Archer definitely decided for Esperanto. The Editor invites correspondence on the discussion, which will be continued in the June issue.

The Philomath, March, gives a good review of Esperanto for All.

The New Zealand Worker publishes regular lessons in Esperanto by "Sunbeam Mary."

"The Clerk", April, 1925, contains a fine article on Esperanto and the Workers' International by Mr. H. H. Elvin.

"Berliner Tageblatts" (Wochen-Ausgabe). Casually turning the pages of the 26 March issue we saw a column of Commercial News in Esperanto—presumably a regular feature. When will (say) the Times Weekly Edition wake up and follow this lead?

"Tyomiehen Viikkolehii" (Finland) contains a regular column of news in or about Esperanto.

Minnesota, U.S.A. Mr. Edwin L. Clarke teaches Esperanto in the University. An Esperanto playlet performed before 1000 persons aroused much interest.
